SLAVICA PERKOVIC

From the first time when I saw N. she seemed less a stranger to me than anyone else in my family; I found something of myself in her. Her family lives on the tenth floor of a suburban housing block with a view of the mountains. In her room, she improvised a play for me. She was natural and spontaneous with an innocent narcissism that was a pleasure to see. I began filming her four years ago and will continue as long as she wants me to.

Slavica Perkovic was born in Zagreb and studied at the Ecole du Louvre and the University of Paris VIII. Her work has been exhibited in numerous personal and collective exhibitions in Europe and America. She has made two previous books, "Six Stories For Four Men" / Stories of Desire and Power, (Scalo, Zurich & New York, 1995) and Betty, Kim, Irena, Slavika, (Steidl Verlag, Gottingen 2001). She lives and works in Paris.
