Dear b6, b7C

I enjoyed the flowers. I was moving from my Houston Street studio at that time.

I'm afraid I don't need studio assistance at this time and that I dislike looking at slides. Yours do, of course, convey the seriousness of your work. Perhaps you would let me visit your studio to look at the paintings. I'm about to go out of the country but should return mid-April. I'll try to call you after that to see if it is possible.

Thank you too for the Rilke - and good luck with your film.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Jasper Johns

Dear b6, b7C [Redacted]

Thank you for your letter of May 1, 1989, including information about the book you are publishing, b6, b7C [Redacted].

I appreciate your inviting me to make a print for the frontispiece of the book, but I do not feel it will be possible for me to participate in the project.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Jasper Johns [Signature]

Dear b6, b7C [Redacted]

Thank you for your letter. I decided some years ago that I should accept no honorary degrees and therefore must decline the one from Brandeis.

I am, of course, touched and grateful to have been considered for such an important honor, and I hope that you will express my deep gratitude to those who thought of me.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear b6, b7C

Forgive this delay in replying to your letter of April 25th.

I'm very grateful for your invitation to visit the American Academy in Rome, but at the present time I can't consider the possibility.

I've seen b6, b7C b6, b7C a number of times since they were there; and they, of course, said how much they enjoyed it.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear b6, b7C

Please forgive this delay. I was out of the country when your letter came.

I'm very sorry that I am unable to give permission for my work to be used. I am never pleased when my flag paintings are used. It is difficult to control this, but I really don't want to encourage it.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Jasper Johns

Dear b6, b7C

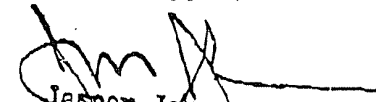

Please forgive this delay.

I can't consider participating in your "objects" project at the present time. If the air clears and should I have an idea some months from now, I'll let you know. At any rate, I wish you much luck with your new undertaking.

I look forward to seeing you during the Christmas holidays.
