press release gallery/ten presents all in between, a solo exhibition of new single edition work by young, emerging printmaker, molly goldwater all in between showcases goldwater's aesthetic of bold, screenprinted colour overlapped with monochrome print + hand-drawn line. goldwater's work is one of contrasts in both medium + method. the application of cut-outs + loose mark-making celebrate the immediacy of her practice, while the timely construction of form through printed layers sit in-line with traditional printmaking. hinting at the naïve, abstract forms of mid-twentieth century british printmakers, goldwater stresses the different qualities achieved through mixing processes

UWE bristol post-graduate, goldwater describes her practice as a mixture of applications amplifying the varying speeds + passing of time involved in making the work; some slow, methodical + meditated, others fast + impulsive.

the juxtaposing of these elements are a key theme throughout goldwater's work. this exhibition will further cement goldwater as an exciting young welsh artist to watch
