DOUBLE 囍 HAPPINESS

In Chinese belief, "Good Things Come in Pairs", which depicts the meaning of DOUBLE 囍 HAPPINESS. In 2014, The 'Yuan Xiao' Festival or the Chinese Valentine's Day falls on the same day as the Western Valentine's Day. The last of this rare occasion happened 19 years ago; a big celebration is called for!

Sin Sin Fine Art is bringing together beautiful artworks by renowned artists Jumaldi Alfi, Kokok P. Sancoko and Nasirun of Indonesia, Sun Guangyi of China, and Vincent Cazeneuve of France. From hand-carved and painted wooden horses to multi-layered floral paintings, poignant foot expertly executed, to peaceful Buddhist paintings and exquisite lacquer paintings, this eclectic selection has been thoughtfully put together to welcome the New Year of the Horse.

This is also the perfect occasion to share some historical background of Sai Street. In 1920, Sai Street was a district for Chinese theatrical and musical troupes. Many brothels in the red-light district kept singsong girls and musicians, and most of the brothel madams trained their own daughters as singers. Sai Street has a vivid history of music and Chinese opera. Sin Sin would like to bring this vivid history back to life by performing Chinese opera.

Accompanied by a group of professional musicians, Sin Sin Man 冼倩文 would perform with three amateur opera singing sisters, Lyew Chin Wai 廖千慧, Ma Lyew Chin Yui 馬廖千睿, and Lyew Hui Ting 廖栩廷, who have over 30 years of opera singing experience. It is an honour for us to have Mr. Ng, Lut Kwong - Head of Playwriting and Scriptwriting and Acting Head of Music (Chinese Opera) at The Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts as our special participant in the performance. Over the years, Sin Sin has been performing Chinese Opera in many venues; but this would be her first time to perform in her own art space. Photos and video from this special event would be made available from our website. Meanwhile, enjoy the artworks!
